

Letter Abraham Lincoln SmartFont

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth, upon this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, <sup>and</sup> dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal....

It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they have, thus far, so nobly carried on. It is rather for us to be here dedicated <sup>to</sup>, the great task remaining before us - that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion - that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation shall have a new birth of freedom; and that this government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.
