

Letter William Clark Smart Font

Fort Mandan April the 3rd 1805.

Sir,

It being the wish of Captain Lewis, I take the liberty to send you for your own perusal the notes which I have taken in the form of a journal in their original state. You will readily perceive in reading over those notes, that many parts are incorrect, owing to the variety of information received at different times, I most sincerely wish that leisure had permitted me to offer them in a more correct form.

Receive I pray you my unfained acknowledgments for your friendly recollection of me in your letters to my friend and companion Capt. Lewis. and be assured of the sincere regard with which I have the honor to be.

Your most obedient and
Humbly servant

Wm Clark
